

Howard Powell

Howard (Red) Powell, 215 Church St., Taylor, died Wednesday at Mercy Hospital after an illness. His wife is the former Romaine Kammer.

Born in Taylor, son of the late Arthur and Blanche Davis Powell, he was a member of the United Baptist Church Taylor. Prior to retirement, he was owner of Howard Powell and Son Plumbing Contractors, Taylor.

Also surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Marie Eskra, Taylor; a son, Richard, Milwaukee, Wis., three brothers, Rev. John Powell, Johnson City, N.Y., David Powell, Irvington, N.J., and William Powell, Arizona; two sisters, Mrs. William Hillerman, Scranton, and Mrs. Henry Goldsworthy Succasunna, N.J.; 10 grandchildren; two great-grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.

A brother, Arthur, and a sister, Blanche, preceded him in death.

The funeral will be Saturday at 2 p.m. from Jacob Davis Funeral Home, 422 S. Main St. Taylor, with services by Rev. D.W. Norton, United Baptist Church, Taylor, and Rev. John Powell, Johnson City, N.Y. Interment, Fairview Memorial Park, Elmhurst.

Friends may call Friday 2 to 4, 7 to 9 p.m.